Folks:

What's not to like? We had sun light. We had wind. We had a great crowd and we were sailing at the best venue I have ever seen, the Pier at Bowman Bay. Every sailing site has issues and so does Bowman Bay. She's like the girl your parents told you to stay away from. Even if she spits tobacco and smells funny, she's still gorgeous and always on your mind. Think Moonbeam McSwine. So what if the wind was crazy enough to piss off the pope, swinging from SE to SW like the pendulum of a very old clock. It was still a blast. I'm still trying to figure out how Kelly does it.

Enjoy, Larry Stiles.
